Organizations help needy

During this holiday season the Distributive Education Club of America, the Student Council, and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes are leading the school in collecting food and toys for the needy.

The MHS Student Council Safety Committee will conduct a bus safety program for the students at Mansfield elementary schools.

Another Student Council activity will be a movie shown on February 23, "The House that Dripped to Blood." Quarter finals will be given first, third, and fifth periods with the movie being shown directly after for a fee of 25¢.

Student Council will also sponsor a student exchange day with Gustine.

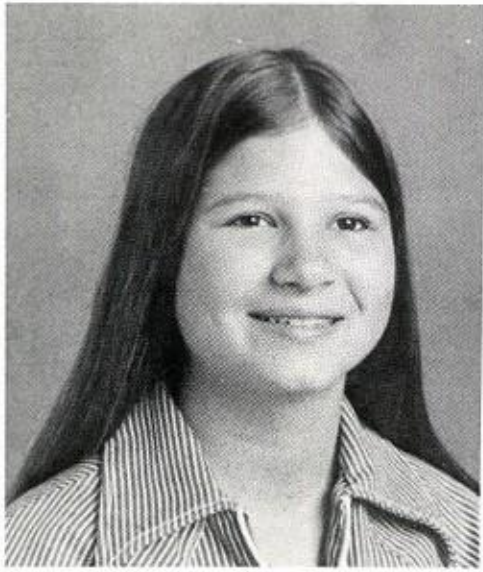

Holiday activities

The Student Council and Distributive Education Club of America's toy drive, French Club's food drive, Spanish Club's Goodfellows Fund, and the choir and band Christmas concert highlight today's holiday activities.

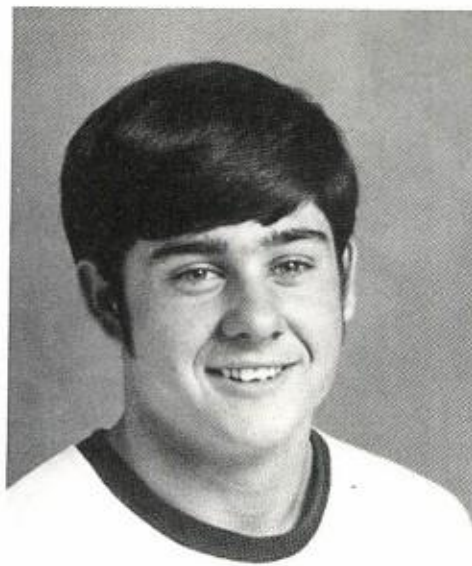

Today the Student Council Safety Committee sponsored a windshield wipeup at late lunch and fifth periods. All the members were permitted to help.

Explorers go

"It's rise and shine" for the members of the Explorers Club this Saturday.

Explorers will leave at 5:00 in the morning and head for Possum Kingdom Lake to canoe down the Brazos River, with a stop over for breakfast at a ranch near the river.

The Explorers Club had a campout at Cedar Scout Ranch by Lake Granbury, November 18-19. They left at 5:00 Friday afternoon and returned around 5:30 Saturday afternoon. Members traveled by cars to and from the ranch. The Explorers slept in tents and cooked their own food. Activities included a marksmanship contest with rifles and a tug-o-war with the other club members at the ranch. Mr. Sessums is the sponsor for the club.

The Explorers Club will be going on a campout to Sid Richardson Scout reservation by Lake Bridgeport. They will travel in cars February 17 and return the 19th. The activities will include horseback riding, canoe riding, hiking and fishing.

An explorer relaxes after the long activities.

From tune-ups to overhauls

Is your car on the blink?

Students and teachers can have their cars worked on in the Auto Mechanics Department during school hours.

The mechanics can do tune-ups, carburetor overhauls, and winterizing on all standard cars. The mechanics do not charge for labor. Their profit is made from the parts used as necessary to fix the car.

The Auto Mechanics officers attended an officers training meeting October 15, at Sam Houston High School.

The Auto Mechanics department is preparing for district contest in March. Among their projects are carburetor overhauls and tune ups.

Tiger defense fires up to stop the Nolan Eagles.

J.V. Tigers go out with flying colors.

In spite of poor prospects at the start of the season, the Junior Varsity Tigers ended the season with a 6-3 record. The young Tigers are a good reason to look forward to a great season in '78.

WAYNE MARTIN and CELSO JIMINEZ hang tough on defense.

J.V. Freshmen managers: JERRY FIESTER, RANDY KIESLER, RANDY COLLINS, and JAMES WILSON.

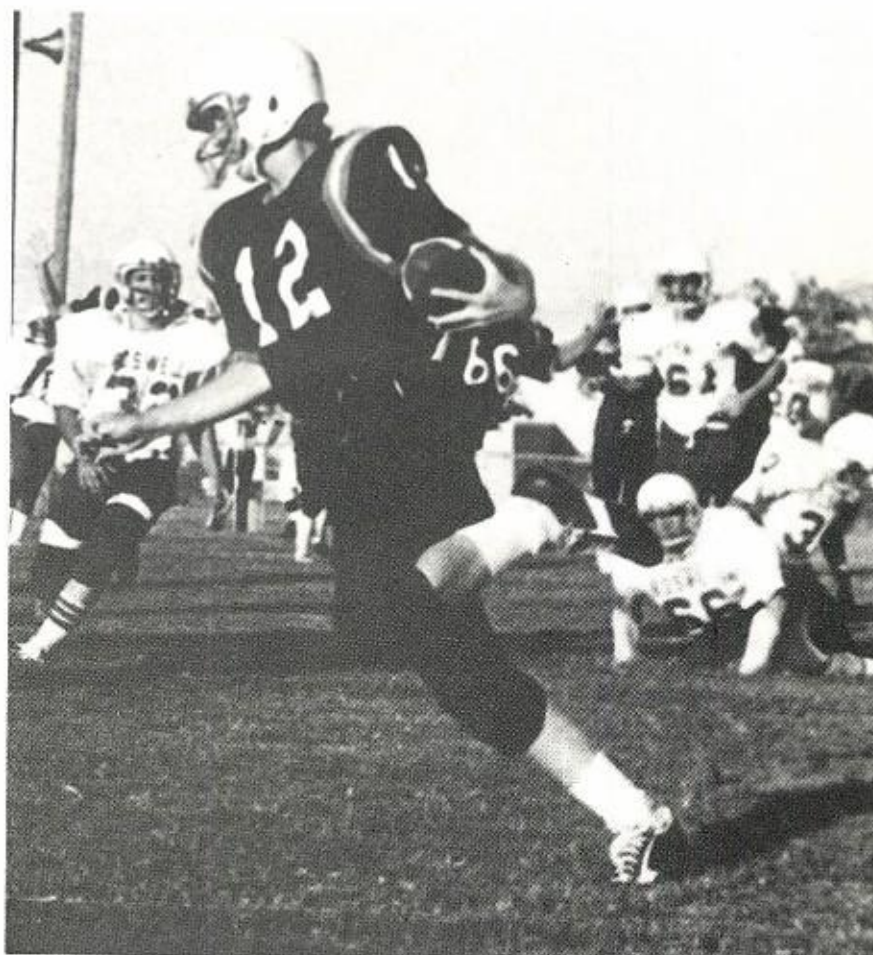

J.V. TIGERS (bottom row) J. Herridge, J. Feisler, N. Talamontez, C. Jimenez, S. Phipps, S. Walker, P. Shelton; (second row) R. Braswell, W. Martin, K. Mullins, R. Kersh, J. Ballard, D. Harris, K. The rodeo cowboy is a majestic breed, too near extinction.

The cowboys of the future depend on those of today.

In an attempt to save this dying breed the Mansfield Rodeo Club in conjunction with the North Texas High School Rodeo Association was finally formed a year ago. Since then we have grown in size and in spirit. Our sincerest thanks and deepest appreciation go to the four sponsors:

Carl & Betty Ashford &
Jim & Sally Snider.

The Four Seasons

Summer is a time for fun and games,
I've met so many people, can't remember their names.

Days are pleasant as moonlight's gleaming.

Fall is here and school is about to begin,
One more year, then the adult world I will be in.

Winter is a time of cold brisk breezes,
And often a time for sniffles and sneezes.
The trees are dark and iced with rain,
To stay outside, I must be insane.

Spring is a time of cool fresh days,
As the sky reflects a clear blue haze.
The time is near for school to end,
With graduation around the bend.

Of the four seasons no favorite have I,
Each hold certain memories I feel deep inside.

Gina Butler

Never listen to an 18 year-old American. He is taught to believe he knows everything and thinks he knows more, when in reality he cannot even say, "I know nothing," for this implies certitude.
